Men's Water Polo in Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame

Bill Drake ('75): Four-year swimming letterwinner ... co-captain of 1974-75 team ... set school and conference records in 200-yard backstroke ... won 200 back at Middle Atlantic and East Coast Conference meets for three straight years ... won four individual events and was on seven winning relays at conference championship meets during career ... member of Bucknell's club water polo team ... entered Hall of Fame with the Class of 1996.

Jim Harvey ('88): Member of men's water polo team in 1987 and 1988 ... recipient of Bucknell's Christy Mathewson Award for the Outstanding Senior Athlete ... entered Hall of Fame with the Class of 1999.

Jeff Hilk ('86): Standout for both the water polo and swimming and diving teams in the mid-1980s ... posted 334 goals and 460 points in water polo career, totals that still rank second only to fellow Hall of Famer and All-American Scott Schulte '81 on Bucknell's career charts.

Lynn Kachmarik: A true coaching pioneer at Bucknell, mentoring both men and women student-athletes in four different sports from 1982-98 ... a world-class water polo player when she came to Bucknell in 1982 as head women's swimming and diving coach ... named head coach of the men's water polo team in 1987, making her the first woman to coach a men's water polo team in NCAA history ... named Eastern Coach of the Year in 1987 ... an avid proponent and advocate for women's water polo, and during the 1998-99 academic year she helped that sport achieve varsity status at Bucknell for the first time.

Geoff Miller ('76): Four-year swimming letterwinner, co-captain, and a member of four Middle Atlantic and East Coast Conference championship teams ... twice competed at the NCAA Swimming Championships ... also a two-year starter for the Bucknell Water Polo Club team ... entered Hall of Fame with the Class of 1998.

Tony Paxton ('81): Three-year starting goalie for the Bison, leading the team to three straight Eastern championships from 1978-80. Those teams also placed sixth, fifth and seventh, respectively, at the NCAA Championships and had a combined overall record of 86-10-3. The 1980 team set a school record with 31 wins, and the 1978 squad won a record 21 games in a row. He holds Bucknell season (.657) and career (.633) save percentage records. He also graduated as the team record-holder in career saves (833), despite playing only three years. His school record stood for 21 years before being broken in 2001. Paxton was named to the All-East First Team in 1978, 1979 and 1980, and he was an honorable mention AAU All-American in 1980.

Dick Russell: Coached the men's swimming team from 1968-94 and created the water polo program at Bucknell ... coached the team to a record of 223-68-4. from its inception as a varsity sport in 1977 until 1986 ... entered Hall of Fame with the Class of 1997 ... inducted into CWPA Hall of Fame as a member of its inaugural class in 2002 ... founded Mid-Atlantic Conference, now the CWPA ... first coach in Bucknell history to win 100 games in two sports, swimming and water polo ... won four Eastern Championships and made five NCAA Championship appearances.

Scott Schulte ('81): Four-time All-East selection and twice a member of the All-America squad ... high scorer in the NCAA Water Polo Tournament for four straight years ... NCAA career scoring leader ... member of the U.S. National Team from 1981-85 ... member of CWPA Hall of Fame ... entered Hall of Fame with the Class of 1986 ... member of the U.S. National Team from 1980-84 ... inducted into Bucknell Athletics Hall of Fame in 1986.

Roger Schwanhausser ('75): Helped Bison swimming team to four consecutive Middle Atlantic and East Coast Conference team championships ... won three individual and 11 relay conference titles in career ... graduated from Bucknell with school records in the 100 backstroke and 200 IM ... member of Bucknell's club water polo team ... entered Hall of Fame with the Class of 2002.
